Play summary

What can happen when a frog decides to settle in the sink drain of a bathroom? A lot of commotion... especially when it comes face to face with a child living in the same house!

That is the opening of the play featuring Laura, a lively and spontaneous girl whose mother is seriously ill. To numb her sorrow, Laura takes refuge in painting. With her brushes full of colors, she fills canvasses with her emotions. But her world turns upside down the day she drops her lucky charm, the ring given by her mother, down the drain in the bathroom sink...
